Any tagalongs wishing to attend will need volunteer clearances per the Bethlehem Area School District Policy. Tagalongs will have access to hotel shuttle to and from the parks and won't have to keep the same schedule as the students. Tagalongs will not have access to the Disney workshop and will be in a different part of the hotel from the students for security purposes. The Candlelight Processional is extremely popular and people start lining up hours in advance to get a good seat. To ensure that you have a place to sit, you might want to book a Candlelight Dinner Package for that evening. You make dinner reservations at select EPCOT restaurants and then have a separate seating area to enjoy the show. Reservations can be made the end of June and the meal is an additional cost for the traveler.
